Focus on what really matters at work

Work is in a crisis, and HR is tasked with fixing it. But the reality is, the most powerful leaders don't try to do it all. Their impact comes from asking provocative questions, uncovering the root cause, and working collaboratively to tackle it head-on.

Get ready to narrow your focus on a few key topics with targeted sessions and workshops featuring the industry's top speakers, researchers, and futurists. You'll walk away not just with a plan, but with countless new connections doing just the same.

Our differentiators

This is the HR event to cut through the noise and focus on what really matters at work. Come for the focus. Stay for the fun.

Ethos

Workhuman is a software company – Workhuman Live is a movement. Founded upon the mission to make work more human for everyone, this conference has evolved to be the industry's premier destination to host the exchange of radical ideas and divergent thinking.

Join us to tackle the issues challenging the workplace today, and you'll be a part of defining what it looks like in the future. And while technology, tools, and solutions may be a part of that conversation, they're not the stars – and this isn't a tradeshow. Our singular focus is to uncover the root of the issues challenging the workplace and arm you with the knowledge, resources, and relationships to deal with them.

“It is a unique learning experience in a personal and professional (more intimate) setting. It is interactive and focuses on the positive aspect of being a human in a complex and complicated world.”

The experience

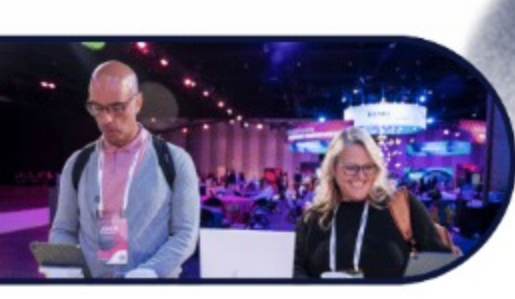

This is not your average conference. Less jargon, more insights. More connection, less distraction. Expect curated activities with local flair, game-changing content, and plenty of focused networking time.

- Workhuman Central
- Networking
- Content types
- Accessibility

Workhuman Central

This is the place where the event comes to life. It's where the human experience is elevated and you are immersed in activities that build community, facilitate recognition, and offer insight into workplace possibilities.

Experience gratitude like never before

What's the point in talking about the impact of recognition without experiencing it for yourself? Visit the Gratitude Bar to send appreciation to other attendees – a coworker, staff member, speaker, or someone you just met – and become part of the culture of gratitude in real time.

Activities

Between keynotes, breakouts, and workshops, channel your energy and excitement into our interactive stations throughout Workhuman Central. This is just a sample of experiences from past years – we're cooking up new creative ideas for Austin.

- Headshots
- Swag-tivations
- High-tech interactives
- Attendee feedback
- Local & creative
- Friends of Bill

Headshots
Nothing feels better than a fresh headshot (and seeing fellow attendees' photos light up LinkedIn is pretty fun too). Look good, feel good, do good.

Networking

Get excited for fresh opportunities to build lasting relationships with your peers and industry experts. We're bringing you together in new ways this year with extracurriculars like flash networking (think speed dating for business), after-hours events, and other interactive activities.

You are doing too much.

Focus on what's creating value. Set aside what isn't.

Addressing symptoms like burnout, isolation, and disengagement distract from the real issues holding companies back. Learn to address the root causes with data and insights that reflect your people's actual workplace experience.

Leverage the conversations, insights and technological shifts paving the way to better workplaces. Learn:

- Strategies for simplifying HR processes to enhance employee understanding, engagement, and overall organizational efficiency.
- How to leverage analytics to reveal insights about workplaces, performance, and talent, then align them with wider strategic initiatives to drive business outcomes.
- How to use artificial intelligence and automation to streamline HR processes while ensuring a human-centered approach to employee engagement.

Topics include:

A.I.	Allyship	Cultural anthropology	Data/Technology
DEI	Feedback	Middle management	Neurodiversity
Psychological safety	Re/Upskilling	Recognition	Well-being
Workplace communication	Workplace psychology

76% of HR leaders believe that if their organization does not adopt and implement AI solutions, such as generative AI, in the next 12 to 24 months, they will be lagging in organizational success compared to those that do.
